

COAL IN PLENTY REACHES CAPITAL; HOUSEHOLDS FIRST

One hundred and fifty carloads of anthracite were received in Washington yesterday and today.

Government coal now in the hands of Washington dealers or at the depots, is to be distributed to householders and small consumers wherever necessary.

Orders for such distribution were issued today by L. A. Sneed, commissioner in charge of coal supply of the Fuel Administration.

This step, and the day's receipt of anthracite abruptly ended the threat of a coal famine in Washington, as was forecast in The Times yesterday with the first announcement of the organization of a Washington coal supply division under the immediate direction of Mr. Sneed.

The order for distribution of coal this morning was the first step taken to meet conditions here. The order followed a conference between Mr. Sneed and Federal fuel administrator John L. Weaver.

Government buildings in Washington have a sufficient supply to meet all immediate needs. Individual consumers are to be cared for and until Washington has on hand a thirty-day stock of coal for all purposes.

DAVIES CONFERS WITH WISCONSIN POLITICIANS

Joseph E. Davies, member of the Federal trade commission, has been in Wisconsin in the past week conferring with Democratic and Republican political leaders.

Mr. Davies is a candidate for Senator Hastings' seat, and has the support of the Wisconsin Administration.

He is endeavoring to attach to his support those Republicans who are hostile to Senator La Follette.

Governor Phillips' policy is either to get authority from the Legislature to appoint, or to call on special election, and allow the voters, if there is no appointment, to be filled at the next regular election in November, 1918.

FALSE TEETH FAMINE TO ADD TO OUR WOES

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A famine in false teeth is imminent today if 200 members of the Dental Mechanics' Union here walk out on strike as they have threatened. They are demanding an increase in wages from $18 to $23 a week. The wage was recently reduced from $22 to $18.

Members of the union have recently become affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

TATIANA, FORMER GRAND DUCHESS OF RUSSIA, COMING

Washington is likely to be the host soon to a daughter of Nicholas Romanoff, former Czar of all the Russias.

Former Grand Duchess Tatiana, who is twenty years old, pretty and clever, is now on her way to the United States from a Japanese port, after a sensational escape from Tobolsk, involving a false marriage to the son of a former chamberlain of the Czar.

The daughter of the former most nearly absolute of all modern monarchs, is coming to America in the interests of democracy. She wants to tell the American public the real inside history of the Russian revolt and to help in stabilizing a real republican government.

Diplomatic circles here were certain today that the former grand duchess would visit Washington.

Will Spend Year Here

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Miss Tatiana Romanoff intends to spend a year in the United States. Though her purpose in coming to this country is to work for the Russian Civilian Relief, an American organization, Tatiana Romanoff declares she would prefer to write short stories, give dance performances, and talk to the women of America about the terrible conditions now prevailing in Russia.

A statement from the Russian Civilian Relief says that Miss Romanoff is certain that by next spring Russia will have a stable government. It should be democratic in character, and preferably a United States of Russia.

Working in co-operation with the Russian Civilian Relief, she will try to foster mutual understanding and friendly relations between the United States and the Russian democracy. Efforts will be made to raise funds and solicit volunteers to aid in the alleviation of suffering among the Russian masses and begin a definite propaganda for the immediate establishment of the desired form of government in the land.

Miss Tatiana will appeal directly to the American people that they should not desert Russia now, in her hour of need, to the adventures and Germans that infect the land. She will also ask for close co-operation with the allies in prosecuting the war.

While in New York she will be accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Carver, of Denver, an American woman who has lived in Petrograd.

Ivan Naredov, who is connected with the Russian-American Athletic Corporation, told how Miss Romanoff succeeded in leaving Russia. He said news of her escape was sent to him by the Emperor's one-time second chamberlain, named Frederick, an old friend, and that the young woman's flight had been known to a close circle of friends.

Tells of Fake Marriage.
He explained that the daughters of the deposed Emperor were permitted to leave Tobolsk and visit relatives elsewhere, but they were forbidden to leave Russian territory. The scheme then was conceived of having her "marry" a son of Frederick, as this would give the former grand duchess freedom of movement about Russia. The formalities of the ceremony were carried out with every apparent reality, and only those who knew the secret understood it was a ruse to effect Miss Romanoff's escape.

"These are strange times in Russia," Mr. Naredov said, after stating that the young woman was on the Pacific coast heading America.

NEWS OF TATIANA'S VISIT CAUSES FLURRY AT THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY

The heralded coming visit of the ex-Czar's daughter Tatiana to the United States caused a flurry at the Russian embassy and American Red Cross here today. They would welcome her as an aid in soliciting funds for Russian civilian relief, if as reported she truly escaped Siberia by a fictitious marriage and doesn't care about restoring the Czar's throne.

Both embassy and Red Cross denied having any connection with the New York committee which announced Miss Tatiana's plans. The committee may exploit her dancing, lecturing, and fairy stories, and send the proceeds to Russia through private channels. The Red Cross controls shipping space for relief supplies. The embassy has officially designated only the Red Cross for financial relief. Col. W. B. Thompson, U. S. A., is at present in Russia at the head of an army and a civilian relief committee.
